

This Week in History

Written by Staff Writer

Thursday, 04 October 2012 07:23 -

South Carolina Black News
THIS WEEK IN HISTORY
O C T O B E R

4 The New Orleans Tribune, first daily Black newspaper, published in English and French, 1864.

5 Eddie Kendricks, musician, founder of the Motown group Temptations, died, 1992.

6 Wilma Rudolph, track & field gold medalist, inducted into Olympic Hall of Fame, 1983.

7 Dubbed "Freedom Day", SNCC launched mass national voter registration drive, 1963.

8 Rev. Jesse Jackson, Sr., activist, 1980 pres. candidate, born in Greenville, SC, 1941.

9 Benjamin Banneker, inventor, mathematician, astronomer, city planner of DC, died, 1806.

10 Mason B. Allen, first Black licensed to practice law in US, died in Washington, DC, 1894.

"Both tears and sweat are salty, but they render a different result. Tears will get you sympathy; sweat will get you change."
- Rev. Jesse Jackson

